

Sajeel Ahmed Director, DISA J-6

Command, Control, Communications, and Computers (C4) Enterprise Directorate

Sajeel Ahmed serves as the Director of the Defense Information Systems Agency's (DISA), J-6 Command, Control, Communications, and Computers (C4) Enterprise Directorate, headquartered in Fort Meade, Maryland. Ahmed is responsible for assisting the director with the day-to-day operations supporting the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Joint Staff, headquarters Department of the Army, and all other Department of Defense component offices within the national capital region.

Sajeel Ahmed assists the director in overseeing all daily information technology operations and defenses, as well as enterprise end-user IT services for DISA, the Fourth Estate, and classified programs, including National Senior Leader Communication capabilities, while managing an infrastructure and portfolio valued at over $1 billion. As Executive Director, he oversees a workforce of more than 3,000, meeting requirements directed by the Deputy Secretary of Defense for consolidation, savings, organizational improvements, and cyberspace security.

Previously, Ahmed served as the Deputy Director, Administration & Management (DA&M), Office of the Secretary of Defense. As the Deputy DA&M, Mr. Ahmed assisted the DA&M managing the Pentagon Reservation, including all construction, renovation, facility operations, maintenance, and security, and provided administrative, personnel, and budget support to OSD, selected Defense Agencies, and DoD personnel in the National Capital Region. He also assisted in supervising Washington Headquarters Services and the Pentagon Force Protection Agency.

Mr. Ahmed previously served as the director of DISA J-6 (previously known as the Joint Service Provider). In this position, he was responsible for day-to-day information technology operations and defenses supporting the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Joint Staff, Headquarters, Department of the Army, and all other Department of Defense Component offices within the National Capital Region.

Prior to joining DISA, Ahmed served as the acting director of the Administration and Organizational Policy Office of the Chief Management Officer, where he was the senior management official overseeing OSD/DoD Organizational Management/Policy and Senior Departmental Governance. He also served as the acting director at Washington Headquarters Services and as director of the WHS Facilities Services Directorate.

Mr. Ahmed was appointed to the Senior Executive Service in 2004. He began his service with the Pentagon as a systems engineer in 1993. During that time, he led the team responsible for the Pentagon renovation. Immediately following the 2001 terrorist attack on the Pentagon, Ahmed led engineering efforts, which developed into two major programs to enhance the Pentagon's survivability and continuity postures: the Command Communications Survivability Program and the Defense Continuity Integrated Network/Pentagon Continuity Information System. He then spent more than a decade as the director of the WHS Facilities Services Directorate, responsible for the operation, maintenance, and construction activities on the Pentagon Reservation.

In 1989, Ahmed graduated from the University of Illinois at Chicago, earning a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering. Later, he joined the U.S. Army Information Systems Engineering Command as an engineering intern at Fort Huachuca, Arizona.
