

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MARK ORNDORFF, LEADING DISA CYBER SECURITY EXPERT, JOINS SUSS CONSULTING

JENKINTOWN, Pa., June 11, 2015 -Suss Consulting, a leading provider of federal IT strategy, market research, capture and proposal services, today announced the addition of Mark Orndorff as Principal Consultant. Mr. Orndorff comes to Suss Consulting from the Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA) after serving as Mission Assurance Executive and Program Executive Officer for Mission Assurance.

"Mark's experience and insights as the leading DISA cyber security executive will be invaluable to our clients as they design and implement the next generation of government IT solutions and services," said Warren Suss, President of Suss Consulting.

Before joining Suss Consulting, Mr. Orndorff served as the Mission Assurance Executive for DISA, where he led Department of Defense cyber security efforts including the acquisition, implementation and sustainment of enterprise capabilities, the development and implementation of the cyber workforce training and certification program, the certification and accreditation of all DISA and enterprise systems, and the development of the DISA cyber security strategy. As the top DISA cyber security executive, Mr. Orndorff developed and implemented a mobility security architecture supporting both classified and unclassified mobile devices. He developed the first DoD guidance for use of commercial cloud and the provisional authorization of commercial cloud providers. He also led the planning for the Joint Regional Security System (JRSS) as the first major component of the Joint Information Environment (JIE). Previously, Mr. Orndorff served as the Program Executive Officer (PEO) for Mission Assurance at DISA, where he led the acquisition, implementation and sustainment of the enterprise cyber security defense capabilities providing protections to the DoD Information Network (DoDIN).

In his 22 year career at DISA, Mr. Orndorff also served as the Chief of DISA Field Security Operations. Previously, he held roles of increasing responsibility with the US Army. Mr. Orndorff's honors while at DISA include the Department of Defense Exceptional Civilian Service Award (2002), the DISA Exceptional Civilian Service Award (2001), and the DISA Organization Outstanding Achievement Award (1999).
