

ERON J. MILLER

Profile

Eron Miller has more than 29 years' experience with strategic planning, portfolio management, operations management, program development and execution, and the management of telecommunications systems, teams, programs, and projects. He has held senior GS-15 positions with the Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA) and the Department of Defense Chief Information Officer (DOD CIO). Mr. Miller is senior SATCOM Subject Matter Expert (SME) with expert knowledge in the DoD's acquisition and use of commercial satellite communications and is a senior acquisition Program Manager with extensive experience in directing government SATCOM programs, projects, and initiatives.

Relevant Experience

Prior to joining Suss Consulting, Mr. Miller spent one year as a Senior SATCOM Policy Analyst for the DoD CIO, C4II providing professional staff assistant oversight to Department of Defense Wideband, Commercial, and Gateway SATCOM programs. He led the Enterprise Working Group (EWG) of the Wideband Communications Services Analysis of Alternatives (WCS AOA). He also developed the framework for a new SATCOM governance structure for the CIO, the SATCOM reference architectures which would provide guiding principles, standards and desired characteristics for Department SATCOM Programs of Record (PORs) and non-PORs

Mr. Miller spent seven years as the Chief of the DISA SATCOM Division and Chief, of the Services Division, COMSATCOM Center, DISA. His responsibilities included overseeing the development, evolution, and execution of the COMSATCOM Program Management Office, MILSATCOM Gateway Program Management Office, Enhanced Mobile Satellite System (EMSS) Program and overseeing SATCOM Operations. He was responsible overseeing the leasing of commercial satellite communications services for the DOD and for managing cost, schedule, and performance of over $700M in SATCOM services and capabilities. He was also responsible for the development and implementation of the Agency's overarching contracts for COMSATCOM services with projecting ceilings over $5 Billion dollars.

Mr. Miller is a level III Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act (DAWIA) Certified Program Manager with extensive knowledge in the acquisition of services to meet governmental requirements.

Education

BA, BS Business Administration - (Project Management), Colorado Technical University
DAWIA Level III Program Management